

2012 Minnesota Garlic Festival
Garlic Growing Contest
“The Big, the Small and the Ugly”

ENTRY FORM

Your Name: _____ Farm Name (opt): _____.

Address: _____ City: _____.

State: ___ Zip: _____.

Phone: _____ Email: _____.

May the festival use your name and/or farm name (if you have one) in our publicity? ___YES___NO

Categories for Largest Garlic (check each CATEGORY that your are entering a bulb in)

<input type="checkbox"/> Artichoke	<input type="checkbox"/> Porcelain
<input type="checkbox"/> Asiatic	<input type="checkbox"/> Purple Stripe
<input type="checkbox"/> Creole (includes Ajo Rojo)	<input type="checkbox"/> Rocamboles
<input type="checkbox"/> Glazed Purple Stripe	<input type="checkbox"/> Silverskin
<input type="checkbox"/> Marbled Purple Stripe	<input type="checkbox"/> Turban

There is no category for elephant garlic. “It’s not really garlic, you know.” MN Garlic Festival Director

Additional Categories (check each that your are entering a bulb in)

Ugliest Bulb: must be disease-free
 Smallest Bulb: must have divided into cloves

There is no category for elephant garlic. “This is wimp garlic.” Author Linda Griffith

There will also be a “BEST IN SHOW” award for the finest bulb overall.

You only need to fill out ONE of this ENTRY FORM. You must fill out a BULB TAG for EACH of the bulbs you are entering.

You may email the ENTRY FORM and all your GARLIC TAGS BY MIDNIGHT AUGUST 4 to:
mngarliccontest2012@hotmail.com.

Emailing them ahead of time will help us arrange for the space needed.

Or you may bring all the completed paperwork with you to the festival. This paperwork will also be available at the festival, and you can fill it out there.

You must bring your bulbs to the festival in person between 10:00 and 11:00 a.m. on August 11th, 2012. Do not attempt to email the actual bulbs as it will clog up your computer and shut down the internet.

There is no category for elephant garlic. “Elephant Garlic is actually a wild leek and not a true garlic.” Wikipedia (so it must be correct)