Transforming Your Dairy and Quality of Life

June 22-24, 2021

Kent Solberg, Dr. Allen Williams & Phyllis and Paul Van Amburgh

This SHASchool Will Teach You

- Practical Application of the Principles of Soil Health & Adaptive Stewardship
- Restoring Vibrant Ecosystems on Operating Dairies
- Cropping & Cover Cropping Strategies for Building Soil Health and Nutrient Dense Feedstuffs
- Making Dairying Highly Profitable & Highly Enjoyable
- High Level Observation and Decision-Making Skills
- Improving Cow Health and Performance While Reducing Inputs
- Implementing Practical Grazing Strategies
- Strategies for Enhanced Net Margins
- How to Lay Out Practical and Flexible Grazing Plans
- Preparing and Accounting for the Unexpected
- Understanding and Working with your Resource Concerns
- Enhanced Market Opportunities
- The Practical Implications of Improved Soil Health Including Mitigating Effects of Wet or Dry Conditions, Increased Harvest Windows, and Improved Animal Performance.

Tuition

$1375 US Dollars

Farm Hosts

Matthew Willenbring & Derek Schmitz
Cold Spring, MN

To Register & For More Info, Contact

Soil Health Academy
256-996-3142
info@soilhealthacademy.org

Scholarships

Soil Health Academy has acquired funding to offer scholarships toward tuition to attend a SHA school. Apply online at: www.soilhealthacademy.org/scholarships

www.soilhealthacademy.org